Rebels Seize Portugal

Shots Fired; President, Premier Held

LISBON (UPI) — An armed forces group protesting Portugal's endless colonial wars in Africa said it had seized control of the nation today and was holding strongman President Americo Thomaz at the headquarters of military police.

The rebels, who seized Lisbon's radio and television stations during the morning, also claimed they have surrounded Premier Marcelo Caetano and several of his key ministers at the headquarters of the National Republican Guard, a paramilitary police force loyal to the government.

Witnesses reported shooting from various points of the city. In the downtown Chiado district, security police fired machinegun salvoes into a group of youths demonstrating their support for the rebels.

But 40 minutes after the deadline had passed, the rebel radio asked the population to evacuate three small sections of town, including the one where the machinegunning of the demonstrators had occurred.

The rebels said "dangerous" police and republican guards elements were holding out in the Camos, Rossio square and Largo do Garbo sections. The announcement appeared to imply that the rebels planned to take action.

The bloodshed at Largo do Garbo occured just as three rebel tanks passed a security police station, witnesses said. A group of youths lustily cheered them on and jeered the policemen peering at them from the station.

At this moment, police opened fire.

It was the second military rebellion in Portugal since March 17 when troops protesting the involvement in Mozambique, Angola and Guinea in Africa tried to move into Lisbon with tanks only to be halted without bloodshed by loyal troops.

Help's On the Way

Several bridges in the Plano Independent School District have deteriorated until it is unsafe for a school bus to use them. Bus routes with a weak bridge have been changed "at considerable increase in total mileage and concern on the part of state officials who must approve such changes," according to Jim Poeppelmeier, Traffic and Safety Coordinator. He asked the County Commissioners to repair these bridges and Commissioner Carl Marion has told him that the problems will be corrected. Road crews were to have begun working on the bridges this week. (Staff photo by Mike Newman).

Voting Light For Primaries

Only three people have taken advantage of the Plano sub-station to vote absentee in the May 4 Primary Elections.

Election Judge Stanley Brimberry said that as of 4 p.m. on Tuesday only one person has voted in the Republican Primary and two had voted in the Democratic Primary. County Clerk James Webb reported that about 40 people had cast absentee ballots in his office.

The Plano substation is located in the office of Justice of the Peace C.J. Prashaw, Room 208 in the Chaddick Building. It is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and absentee voting will continue through April 30.

Any eligible voter who will be unable to vote in person on May 4 may vote by absentee vallot. The voter must have his registration certificate allowing him to vote in the May 4 election.

Elderly or ill voters may vote absentee by mail by requesting a ballot from the County Clerk's office in the courthouse in McKinney. Voters outside the county may also request an absentee ballot by mail.

Frenches Are First Family Of Spittin'

MONTICELLO, Ark. (UPI) — Tim and Rita French are Arkansas's first family of tobacco spitters.

Tim won the accuracy division of the "First Annual Arkansas Tobacco Spitting Contest," and Rita, who didn't really start chewing tobacco until 15 minutes before the contest began, won the allaround female division.

"It wasn't too bad," she said, rinsing her mouth out with a cup of water. "It was a little hot and a little sweet. I might try it again next year."

Mrs. French said she learned everything about tobacco chewing and spitting from her husband.

Dr. Victor Mandelzweig, Jewish Nuclear Physicist who spent 20 months gaining approval for his emigration to Israel from Russia, called for American citizen contacts with the United States government in support of other Jews who wish to leave the Soviet Union. Speaking before audiences at The University Of Texas at Dallas and at other Education and religious centers, Mandelzweig said that 100,000 Jews desire to leave Russia, but "red tape" and costs make it nearly impossible. As he did, Jews holding high positions in science, lose their jobs immediately as they apply for an emigration visa.

Living in Russia

Being Jewish Not Easy

"I could not be a Jew in Russia," said Prof. Victor Mandelzweig as he spoke in a series of talks and interviews at The University of Texas at Dallas.

A nuclear physicist, now teaching at Hebrew University in Jerusalem, he was able to emigrate to Israel only after 20 months of delays, "red tape" imposed by the Soviet government, and the loss of his research institute position.

Others are less fortunate, he said. Many wait for years to leave Russia. But more and more wish to, in what he termed a chain reaction among Jews that has swollen to 100,000 in the past three years.

"Scientists have special reasons to leave," Professor Mandelzweig said. As professional people, they desire to meet freely and discuss government and politics openly, forming their own opinions; in science, it is difficult for any Russian to have contacts abroad with his colleagues. The limited possibilities become "zero possibilities for the Jewish scientist."

Professor Mandelzweig, who was able to learn Hebrew in Poland as a young student, said he is "enjoying life in Israel." In Russia, there was no Jewish education, no newspapers.

He visited UT-Dallas during a one-month tour of the United States, representing the Committee of Concerned Scientists, which is attempting to ease the problems of Russian scientists, both Jewish and non-Jewish.

The Soviet does not fear a brain drain, Professor Mandelzweig said, in its tactics to control the movement of scientists. Whole research departments have been fired because a leader sought an emigration visa.

Rather, the Soviet acts in a sort of "revenge" against those who have been successful but do not profess to be satisfied with life in Russia.

Exit visa problems start when a necessary invitation to come to a foreign country is received, he said. This calls for a character reference, usually from a scientific director. Asking for the reference will usually "get you fired."

Then comes the problem, other than assembling the volume of paper, of getting the money to leave. The "price" amounts to 1,000 rubles per person, which is hard to bring together on high scientific salaries of a little more than 200 rubles a month, and even more difficult without a job.

Professor Mandelzweig sees no possibility of change in the Russian government. Because any Jewish movement would be toward democratization, the movements are supressed as they have been since the late 1930's.

The only change in government would come through a weakening of communism's leadership, he said; and he sees no weakening at this time.

Detente between the United States and Russia is all to the Soviets' advantage, Professor Mandelzweig said. Russia wants detente between governments, but not to the extent that there are easy contacts between peoples.

He encouraged Americans, Jews and Christian alike to "address your government about the plight of Jewish people in Russia. Your opinions are important."

English History Told

In Rejebian Review

The Rejebian Book Club met at the home of Mrs. Chuck Howard, 1613 Lakehill on Tuesday to hear Mrs. V.Y. Rejebian review the plan, "Crown Matrimonial."

Mrs. Rejebian of Dallas has been reviewing books in Plano and other surrounding areas for years. She conducts considerable research before each review so she is always completely prepared, and her reviews are generally considered excellent.

"Crown Matrimonial" covers a period in England's history beginning with Edward, later to be called the Duke of Windsor, ascending to the throne at the death of his father.

Just prior to his becoming the King of England, he has met and fallen in love with a twice married and divorced American by the name of Wallis Simpson, whom he is determined to marry.

The impact of his decision and the reaction of his family is the basis for this play which has received wide acclaim in England because the English are known for their moral beliefs, and for their loyalty to the throne and to the royal family.

Edward's mother, and indeed all of the family, refuse to meet or accept any introduction to Mrs. Simpson, and so it is with heavy heart that Edward abdicates his throne, vowing that he can never be a good king without the woman he loves at his side.

His brother then ascends to the throne and is known as George VI. He is a shy man, who stammers when he talks and is very fearful that he will never be a good king. History reveals that he was indeed an even tempered, kind but firm king who brought England through World War II.

At his death, his eldest daughter Elizabeth became the Queen of England and is still reigning. She is also a popular monarch.

Edward's mother never accepted Mrs. Simpson but eight years after his marriage when the Duke came to visit his mother, she did relent just enough to tell him that she sent her kind wishes to the Duchess at a time when he was receiving a phone call from the Duchess in Paris. The play ends with that visit.

Mrs. Howard and her cohostesses served refreshment to 31 members and four guests. The guests were Mrs Stella Nowlin, Mrs. Rachel Newell, Mrs. Katherine Barker and Mrs. Robbie Robinson, all from Sherman.

County Officials Learning Jobs

Through Specialized Training Courses

Texas elected county officials have become increasingly "education conscious" in recent months.

Since the first of this year nearly 1,000 county officials have participated in specialized training at Texas A&M University designed to assist county government leaders to operate more effectively within the framework of established law.

"Numerous changes in laws affecting county government have required local officials to exercise particular caution in the performance of their duties," pointed out Charles E. Lawrence, county officials program specialist for the Texaas Agricultural Extension Service. "Educational programs at Texas A&M for elected county officials have reflected a substantial upsurge in interest in keeping up with changing timemes."

Three major conferences at Texas A&M this year have aided local officials in broadening their understanding of personnel administration, workmen's compensation and employee relations. The new Penal Code, Family Code and Election Code changes were items of intensive concern to conference participants, noted Lawrence.

"Constitutional Revision now in progress was a topic of overriding interest. Maintaining government close to the people, which preserves the traditional system of checkes and balances and retains the citizens' right of direct election of county officers, was a widespread sentiment expressed by county leaders," the specialist said.

Lawrence, himself a former veteran county officeholder, expressed gratification that county officials are now recognizing to a greater extent the role of continuing education in developing leadership at the local level.

"Officials serving in Texas county government today," Lawrence noted, "are on the whole more qualified and better informed than officials of yesteryear. The dedication and concern of county officials in seeking to broaden their horizons through educational seminars and conferences is a good omen for the future. It is a key ingredient in assuring responsive and effective local government."

Classes Started For Slow Learners

The University of Plano will conduct its Summer Neurological Organization and Reading Program for children ages six through juniors and seniors in high school. It is designed for students who experience difficulties in school because of a reading problem.

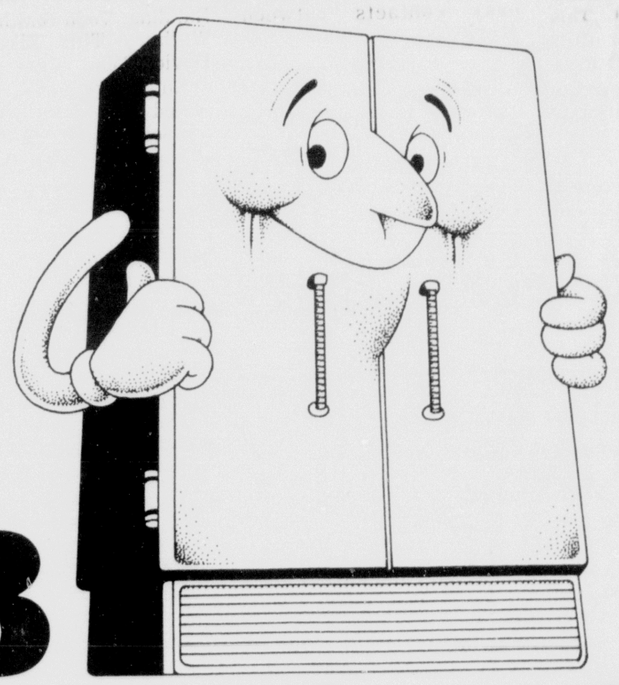

Although the child has average or above-average intelligence, such difficulties as hyper-activity, particularly in the younger children, reading at a level below his peers, expressing himself poorly, are all indications of some perceptual inadequacies.

The Summer Program will include testing and evaluation, a two-hour a day nuerological organization program using the Doman-Delacato method of activities, plus one hour of reading skills and enrichment. It will begin on June 6 and last until July 19. Registration should be completed by May 15, as enrollment is limited.

Further information may be obtained by calling the University of Plano at 424-6541.

David A. Armstrong D.V.M. would like to announce the opening of Custer Parkway Animal Hospital, 2905 Custer, Plano Texas. Practice limited to small animals. Phone 424-1557. Office hours 8:00 to 12:00 a.m.-2:00 to 6:00 p.m. daily & 8:00 to 12:00 a.m. Thursday & Saturday.

Reducing plan for energy users

Plan B
How to save electricity with refrigerator-freezers

1. Defrost regularly. More than ¼" of frost will act as insulation and causes your refrigerator/freezer to work harder to maintain a proper temperature. Replace worn door gaskets to prevent cold air loss.
2. Keep refrigerator temperature setting between 35° and 40° — freezer setting at 0°. (Use thermometer to check.)
3. Adjust temperature up 2° or 3° if you'll be away several days.
4. Don't leave door open unnecessarily. Close quickly.
5. Avoid overcrowding. It restricts cold air flow around food and overworks unit.
6. Cool foods to room temperature before refrigerating or freezing.
7. Keep condenser coils on back and bottom of your refrigerator/freezer free of dust for more efficient operation.
8. Cook double recipes and freeze half for future use.

Conserve electricity and you help conserve one or more of the fuels needed to produce it: natural gas, coal and oil. Conserve fuels and you help assure that there will be enough to meet essential needs for electricity in the future.

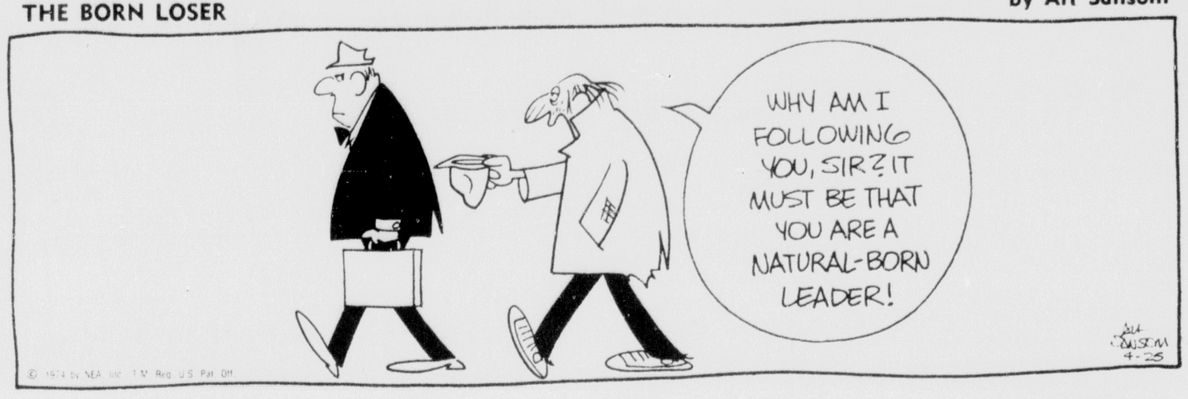

When you pass a TP&L office, warehouse, generating plant or other facility, you'll see that we've turned off all non-essential lighting. And, in as many other ways as possible, TP&L is reducing its own uses of electricity.

If you would like additional information on conserving electricity, call or see the Customer Service Representative in the TP&L Office.

Shorter showers help cut bills

By Polly Cramer

DEAR POLLY — When taking a shower, I no longer turn the water on full blast, only about half as strong as I used to. This helps with the energy crisis and my utility bill has been visibly lower since I started doing this. — I.H.

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY — I put my wet clothes basket on the mat in front of a door and the dye from the mat soaked into the green-and-white checked tile floor. This left a red-looking stain that I have tried to remove with various household cleaners, full strength ammonia and lighter fluid but to no avail. I did not think the mat would run. There were no warnings or instructions on it when purchased. I do hope someone will have some suggestions as to how I might remove this stain from my slightly-cushioned tile floor of the type that does not require waxing. —SONJA.

DEAR POLLY — So many products now come packed in such heavy cardboard and plastic that is hard as glass. The guarantees, directions for use, replacement part numbers, etc., are written on the edge of the cardboard. This cardboard is too large for a file folder and too heavy to bend in half and also it often has to be damaged to even get the plastic cut enough to remove the item. It seems this pertinent information could be printed on a piece of paper inserted under the plastic covering so it could be saved for future reference. — RUTH.

DEAR POLLY — Since Mrs. W.S. finds toilet bowl cleaners and deodorizers that turn blue objectionable she could use bleach in the bowl. I have used it for years and find it works well. — MRS. A.H.

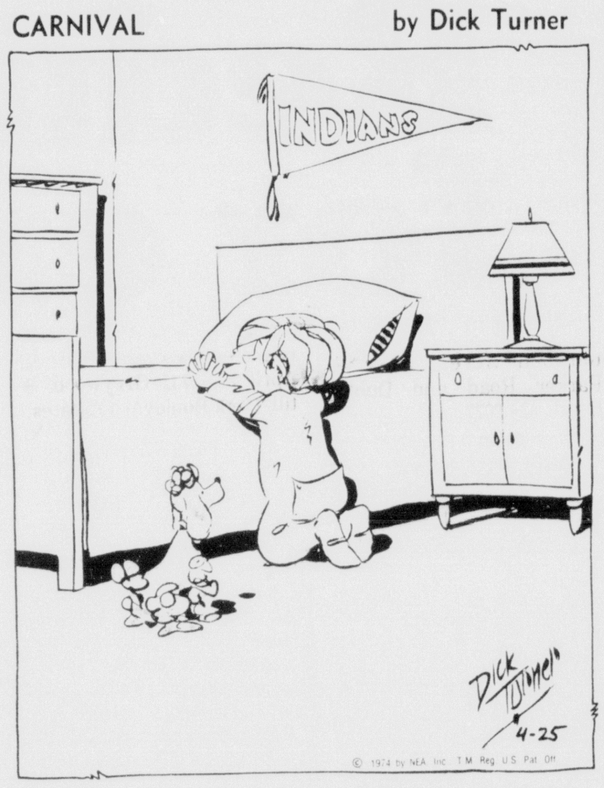

(POLLY'S NOTE — NEVER use a toilet bowl cleaner with the bleach.)

DEAR POLLY — Occasionally I have small visitors who need a booster seat to eat comfortably at the table. When our new telephone books were delivered I stacked the two old ones and covered them with a wood-grained design adhesive-backed paper. The resulting booster seat is over three inches tall, matches my maple chairs, is easy to wipe off, does not scar the chairs, is relatively easy to sit on and cost little. — MRS. J.A.S.

DEAR GIRLS — If your telephone company collects the old books out-dated mail order catalogues might be used in the same way. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — Nail up empty thread spools in the garage or work shop to have for hanging work clothes and jackets. The spools eliminate any possibility of rust marks on the collars. This is especially good when garments are hung up while still wet. — M.M.H.

CARNIVAL by Dick Turner

"I wished for it on the first star I saw, but I figured it wouldn't hurt any to have you working on it, too"!

SIDE GLANCES by Gill Fox

"Next of kin? We think it's a fox terrier named Mike!"

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The English language boasts an abundance of nouns used to describe groups of things, particularly pairs or aggregations of animals. The World Almanac lists the following seldom used collectives: brace of ducks; cloud or horde of gnats; clowder or clutter of cats; clutch of chicks; cry or mute of hounds; draught or shoal of fish; grist of bees; leap of leopards; murder of crows; skulk or leash of foxes; tribe or trip of goats; and a volery of birds.

SHORTS

Rutherford B. Hayes had the first telephone installed in the White House in 1877, yet it was not until the Hoover Administration, in 1929, that a telephone sat on the desk of the Chief Executive.

A May 28, 1923 decision of the Attorney General of Washington state legalized the practice of women wearing trousers when and where they pleased.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be extra-protective and watchful today of those under your charge. Also, don't admit questionable strangers into your home.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Travel will offer more frustrations than usual today. You'll be better off not to do a lot of unnecessary gadding about.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Some budget tightening is going to be required over the next few days. Be careful you don't spend beyond your means.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) A number of things will pop up that will inhibit your freedom and tie you down more than you'd like. Try to keep your cool.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You're building up more resentment than you should about a situation you've been keeping to yourself, rather than ironing it out openly.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Storm warnings are up that tell you to tread carefully where friends and money are concerned. Neither lend nor borrow.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Be sure goals you have in mind are worth the frustrations they'll cause. Achievements won't come easily the next few days.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You will meet with more resistance than you counted on if you try to force your will on others today. Watch out!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Don't take anything for granted in business dealings at this time. Insist upon facts, figures, receipts and full disclosure.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) One-to-one relationships will have to be handled with extreme tact over the next few days. Partnership situations are explosive.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Be more safety-conscious than usual where work is concerned. Avoid coworkers who are careless or inexperienced with tools.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Romantic matters will be a little rocky the next couple of days. Try not to be too demanding of a loved one.

There are four concerts a year, with a reciprocity agreement with associations of Irving, Arlington, Garland, Mesquite, Greenville, Denison, Paris, and Tyler. Richardson members may attend concerts in those cities by presenting their membership cards at the door.

Concerts in Richardson this year will feature the Big Band Cavalcade on September 23, with Bob Crosby, Freddy Martin and Margaret Whiting. Sissy Raps 'Unity Petition'

Claims One-Man Control Being Sought

"The Democratic Party of Texas cannot and should not be the personal possession of any politician," Frances "Sissy" Farenthold said in Houston.

"Mr. Briscoe's so-called 'unity petition' is nothing more than a call for control of the Party by one man and his own small clique of Party manipulators," Farenthold said. "In 1972 we had a good delegation from Texas to the Miami National Convention, one in which all points of view were fairly represented. No one controlled that delegation, and no one should control the delegation this year.

"Briscoe's continued pestering of Democratic officials in an attempt to turn the Texas Party into his own vehicle for power and control, makes a mockery of all genuine attempts to open the Party to all good Democrats," she said. "His 'Conventions Committee' has run a well-financed campaign directed to officers of the Party throughout the state, in an effort to persuade Democratic State Committee members, Precinct Chairmen and County Chairmen they should march in lock-step to the Governor's tune.

"'Unity' for Briscoe is nothing more than control for Briscoe, and I urge all Democrats to vote on Saturday, May 4, then go to their Precinct Conventions and sign in for an open Party," Farenthold continued. "The post-Watergate challenge for the Democratic Party is not just unity behind one particular faction, but to help to elect to public office the kind of officials who will make government do what it is supposed to do and put the people's interest above all others.

"I am urging all my supporters to petition for an open Party and sign in at their Precinct Conventions under the following form:

'Whereas the Democratic Party of Texas should be open to all good Democrats, and whereas the State Convention, and the delegation to the 1974 Conference on Democratic Party Organization and Policy should fairly reflect all Democratic points of view, we hereby request a caucus to select delegates to the County or Senatorial District Convention from Precinct .'

"When I am elected Governor, no group, no faction will dominate our Party deliberations.

TSTA Announces Regional Office

A new source of assistance to teachers in Collin County on school-related problems is now available from the newly established Region 8 office of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Nine such regional offices have been established by TSTA, to extend services of the Association's state headquarters in Austin.

Collin County will be served by the regional office at Arlington, with Dora Rose as regional director-consultant and Joe Atkins as regional consultant to assist the teachers in the area.

They have offices at 710 North Watson. Suite 103, Arlington. The telephone number is 817-261-2663.

In the past, TSTA field service personnel have operated solely out of the Austin headquarters office. This office will continue to serve members on a statewide basis.

Functions of the local office at Arlington, which will serve a 16-county area, will be to coordinate programs, supply information, help TSTA local associations with member services and benefits and assist in workshops.

"We hope to be able to serve the teachers of Region 8 on any matter relating to their profession," Miss Rose said. "If we cannot give them the information or service they need, we will refer them to those who can supply it from the Austin headquarters," she said.

Texas Beats Red Sox 3-1,

Tops List in West Division

Rangers Back on Top

After taking a 3-1 win over the Boston Red Sox Wednesday, the Texas Rangers are making believers out of a lot of people.

Few, if anyone, took Ranger Manager Bill Martin's words to heart when he said the Texas franchise would be a penant contender. But a look at the American League standings reveals the Rangers are on top with a 9-6 record, .37 percentage points ahead of the World Champion Oakland Athletics.

The Red Sox, now with a 9-7 record in the East Division, made a crucial mistake in the seventh inning that made the Ranger job of winning easier.

With two outs and first baseman Jim Spencer on second base, Boston pitcher Reggie Cleveland intentionally walked .163 batter Joe Lovitto.

Cleveland then faced .590 batter Lenny Randle, who dropped a double into centerfield to score both Spencer and Lovitto.

Then, Texas Ranger pitcher Fergusen Jenkins continued his game winning pitching style the eighth and ninth innings to get his fourth game win this season.

The Red Sox were scored on by the lead-off batter in the first inning for the Rangers first run. Second baseman Dave Nelson sent a grounder scampering through Red Sox third baseman Rico Petrocelli and shortstop Mario Guerrero.

Ranger shortstop Toby Harrah advanced Nelson to second base on his sacrifice and Alex Johnson, left-fielder, came to bat.

As Johnson awaited the pitch he wanted, a passed ball gave Nelson a trip to the third bag. Then Johnson came-up with an infield single to RBI Nelson and also get on first base.

However, Johnson was nailed trying a steal to second base for the Rangers second out. Clean-up batter Jeff Burroughs retired the side with his ground out.

The Red Sox tied the score at 1-1 in the top of the seventh inning on first baseman Cecil Cooper's run. Petrocelli got the RBI on his single to leftfield.

Game Wrap-Up

The Rangers led hitting in the game with six hits. Nelson was three for four with two infield singles, Johnson had one single for an RBI, while Spencer and Randle got doubles.

Jenkins was credited with a throwing a six-hitter and he gave-up one walk, intentional.

The Rangers close their homestand tonight with an 8 p.m. game tonight with Boston.

RANGER SIDENOTES...

When Fergusen Jenkins intentionally walked Red Sox batter Carl Yaztremski in the seventh inning, it was the first base on balls the Texas Ranger hurler had given up in 15 previous innings... Jenkins won his fourth game of the season with the 3-1 Ranger victory, the first time a Ranger pitcher won four games in April. The earliest a Ranger pitcher won four games in a season previously was June 5, 1972 by Dick Bosman ... Research back to 1948 reveals only eight teams in the Washington - Texas franchise entered May with a winning record, this year's club could be the ninth . . . More research reveals the Rangers, currently leading the American League West, have a shot at being the only team in the history of the franchise since at least 1948 to emerge from April in first place... Texas has six games left in April, including tonight's homestand closer with Boston... Jenkins hurled his fifth complete game last night, the most by a Washington-Texas pitcher since Dick Donovan unraveled six consecutive complete games in 1961... After tonight's game, the Rangers hit the road for four games at New York, two at Milwaukee and three at Boston... The Rangers next home game after tonight is May 6 with New York.

Pirates Drop Twin Bill

University of Plano dropped a doubleheader to Jarvis Christian College Tuesday, the first game 7-5 and the second game 4-0.

In the first game Plano was down 9-2 in the seventh inning and came back with five runs, but couldn't make up the score's difference.

"We made six errors and they made one error," Coach Steve Adair said. "That was really the difference in the ball game."

Plano outhit Jarvis Christian nine to eight.

"It was really bad that we lost," Adair said. "We had good pitching by Chuck Bancroft and outhit Jarvis. We were just killed by our errors."

Bancroft threw six strikeouts and walked four. "He only gave up one earned run," added Adair.

Larry Uribe, a second baseman, was the leading batter with two hits including a triple. Mike Baxter had two hits while Dave Patrick got a double.

In the second game Plano was blanked 4-0.

"Both teams had five hits," Adair said. "However, their hits were all together and ours were spaced out."

Jarvis started off fast with a two run double in the first inning

Gilbert Bernal was the Plano pitcher, striking out four batters and walking six.

Leading local hitter was Tim Perales with two hits.

Plano's next game is today with the University of Dallas at Plano.

Friday, Plano will host Mary Hardin-Baylor, a team of ex-pro baseball players trying to break back into the big leagues.

Ray Murff, head scout of the Montreal Expos, is managing the team. Murff is credited with signing Nolan Ryan.

Year of the Homerun - 1974

Hank Aaron Established it, Graig Nettles is Promoting it

By BILL MADDEN
UPI Sports Writer

We all knew —even before the season began —that Hank Aaron would quickly establish 1974 as "the year of the home run.". What we didn't know was that Graig Nettles would come from out of nowhere to push the American League into the home run-hitting sweepstakes.

But there he is: Graig Nettles, steady, if not spectacular New York Yankee third baseman, boasting a league record-tying 10 home runs for the month of April—23 full games ahead of Roger Maris' season's record pace of 61 in 1961 and 16 ahead of Babe Ruth's 60 in 1927.

"I'm not losing any hair," laughed Nettles after tying Frank Robinson's American League homer record of 10 for the month of April in the Yankees' 4-3 victory over the Kansas City Royals Wednesday. "I don't feel any pressure at all. I'm the same modest hero I ever was."

He Leads Both Leagues

Nettles, who leads both leagues in homers, slammed out No. 10 on a towering solo shot in the sixth inning that gave the Yankees a short-lived 3-2 lead. It was also his 21st run batted in. The Royals tied the score in their half of the inning only to see the Yanks come back to win it in the seventh on Roy White's wrong field double that scored Jim Mason.

Elsewhere in AL action, Texas downed Boston, 3-1, Baltimore nipped California, 4-3, Detroit mauled Minnesota, 8-4, the Chicago White Sox drubbed Milwaukee, 7-2, and Oakland pounded Cleveland, 9-2.

In the National League, Cincinnati whitewashed the Chicago Cubs, 1-0, Houston belted St. Louis, 9-4, Pittsburgh got by Atlanta, 5-3, Los Angeles whipped Philadelphia, 6-1, and San Diego edged the New York Mets, 4-3.

Orioles 4 Angels 3:

Al Bumbry doubled and scored in the third inning, then singled home another run in the fifth and Dave McNally went 8 1-3 innings to gain credit for his second win in three decisions for the Orioles this season.

Tigers 8 Twins 4:

Two run triples by reserve catcher Jerry Moses and Aurelio Rodriguez sparked three-run rallies in the sixth and seventh innings to stake Tigers' ace Joe Coleman to his third victory. John Hiller contributed with his first save, mopping up over the last 2 1-3 innings.

White Sox 7 Brewers 2:

Wilbur Wood tantalized the Brewers for six innings with his knuckleball and Terry Forster intimidated them with his fastball over the last three to boost the Chisox out of the AL West basement for the first time this season. For the usually durable Wood, it was only the second win in six outings thus far.

Athletics 9 Indians 2:

Sal Bando homered, doubled and drove in five runs to add further misery to the muchmaligned Cleveland pitching staff. Ken Holtzman picked up his first victory of the year for the A's. The hapless Tribe is now 5-12 with Manager Ken Aspromonte beginning to get a little edgy.

Dr. Bobby Brown

Rangers Name President

By MIKE RABUN
UPI Sports Writer

ARLINGTON, Tex. (UPI) — For 20 years Bobby Brown had nothing much to do with baseball except play in some New York Yankee old timers game and turn on his television to the game of the week.

But in the past month, he has jumped back into the sport in a major way—first as a part owner of the Texas Rangers and now as president of the club, succeeding Bob Short.

The combine headed by Fort Worth businessman Brad Corbett, which bought 90 per cent of the Rangers earlier this month, contained little baseball experience, with the exception of Brown.

Brown, 49, a heart surgeon in Fort Worth, was persuaded by his fellow owners to assume the club's presidency on an interim basis with the hope—at least by Corbett—of his staying in the job.

"I'm not prepared to make any lasting committments as far as baseball is concerned," said Brown, the former Yankee third baseman who was named by his co-owners Wednesday as the club's president. "I have made a decision to make a break in my routine. I've been out of baseball for 20 years. I've been hard at work in the medical profession since that time.

"I've taken a two month leave of absence to see if this will be beneficial to me. This is a million to one shot. I had no idea this situation might arise. I want to believe that I'll be back taking care of sick folks in the near future."

But Corbett suggested and Brown agreed that there might be a permanency to the job.

"If we can build our organization," said Corbett, "Then the the president's position will not be a full time job. We have an excellent general manager, an excellent director of our scouting system and our manager (Billy Martin) speaks for himself.

"But since the ownership did not have any baseball experience, we needed a man to rally around—a leader."

Brown played third base on the great Yankee teams of the late 1940s and early 50s for which Martin was the second baseman.

Brown said it was possible that he might still be around when his two months leave of absence is over, but not on a day-to-day basis.

"I've not totally ruled out staying," Brown said. "The thing that I will have to consider is how much time the role will require as time goes on."

Players Association May Fight Cowboys

DALLAS (UPI) — The National Football League Players Association may fight a Dallas Cowboys legal suit which seeks to stop its players from defecting to the new World Football League.

A state district court hearing is set next Tuesday on a temporary restraining order which prevents the WFL from signing any Cowboy players until their contracts expire.

Quarterback Craig Morton and running back Calvin Hill have signed with the new league and the court orders prohibits them from publicizing the WFL.

Ed Garvey, the Players' Association attorney, said his group "was going to be involved in this entire matter. We are coordinating with various attorneys involved."

He said he was concerned with the section banning Hill or Morton from promoting the new league.

"I do think it is rather bizarre in this day in age to get a restraining order to essentially stop someone from exercising his right of freedom of speech," Garvey said.

Dodgen Wins in Speedway Opener

Oren Dodgen will be one of the favorites at Princeton Speedway Friday night. Dodgen won the speedway's opening night feature race last week.

Dodgen beat four top drivers to win the top money. Robert Kruger, in a Camaro, followed the rear of Dodgen's Chevy and got second place. Ron Trammel, in a Chevelle, Ron Reed, in a Chevy, and Jim Gracy, in a Camaro, followed respectively.

Over 30 cars entered in the speedway's opening night races and going into April 26 races, promoter Mike Merritt expects 40 or more cars.

In other races last Friday, Ron Capps in a Camaro won the trophy dash. Capps, former Princeton champ, was followed by Steve Coats, last year's Sportsdrome champ, in a Camaro.

In the first heat race, Dennis Sutherland edged competition for a first in his Chevy, Eddie Prator was second in his Chevy. Third place was won by Duane Kruger in a Chevy.

In the second heat, for faster qualifying cars, Robert Kruger was first in a Camaro, Ron Trammell second and Ronnie Reed third.

In the consolation race, Jim Gracy finished on top, Harvey Kruger second in a Chevy powered Volkswagen and Tim White was third in a Chevelle.

In the novice races, Jackie Myers swept the heat and feature. Leonard Allen took the feature race top spot.

"Weather was bad last week, a big wind made it hard for everyone. Weather permitting, this Friday night races should be a lot better show," Merritt said.

Princeton Speedway is located five miles east of McKinney on Highway 380. Friday night races will begin with time trials at 7:30 p.m.

PARD Softball Begins

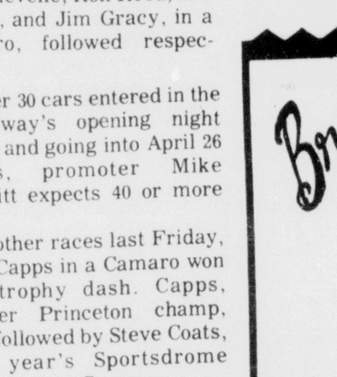

With the weather holding true to form, the first days of the 1974 city softball leagues were cancelled due to soggy field conditions.

This years' leagues consisting of teams competing in Mens' Open, Mens' Church, and Womens' Open have doubled over last year making scheduling somewhat of a chore as facilities are limited and many games must be played before the Texas Amateur Athletic Federation (TAAF) Regional Tournaments in July.

Participation in the leagues this year are eighteen Mens' Open teams, ten Mens' Church teams and eight Womens' teams. Games will be played at Schell Park on fields No. 1 and No. 3 each night starting at 7:00, 8:30 and 10:00.
